ROBERT AMATO
"Bob"

"Bob" is a quiet fellow who always minds his own business. "Bob" is the star football player in the games between lunch periods especially when they use a tomato can for a ball.

IRENE ASPINALL
Volley Ball 3 Basketball 3, 4
Baseball 3

Although Irene seems to be quiet, she is quite the contrary. She has been an ardent admirer of basketball, and consequently, has played on the Girls' Basketball Team. Irene intends to enter the nursing profession next year. Here's luck Irene!

HELEN BASHEVKIN
"Bunny"
Band 1, 2, 3, 4 Outing Club 1
Orchestra 3, 4 Class Play Committee 4
Minstrels 1, 3, 4 Traffic Corps 4

This ravishing beauty with the rosy cheeks is our talented "Bunny". For four years she has been a valuable member of the band and orchestra. Along with a musical ear "Bunny" possesses a musical laugh, a cheerful disposition and a keen wit which have gained her many friends. Next year "Bunny" enters the Bender Laboratory in Albany to become a technician.

JULIA BATES
"Judy"
Class Book Typist 4
Associate Editor of Class Book 4

"Judy" has graced "the commercial corner" for four short years where her pleasant smile has become most familiar. Her graceful carriage is a decided relief after that eternal modern swagger. Her presence is welcome in all circles including the church circles in North Pownal where her charming voice can be heard at three different services each Sunday morning. Incidentally, she hopes to sing over the radio some day. Good luck, "Judy". Nothing can stop you, now.

SARAH BETSEY BEEBE

"Betsey"

Editor-in-Chief of Academe 4

Minstrels 4

Assistant Editor of Class Book 4

Debate 4

Traffic Corps 4

Hail and bow low to "Betsey", the first of "The Three Musketeers" who'll live forever in Drury's Hall of Fame because of her personality. Want to meet her? Any morning at exactly 7:45 she comes tearing round the corner in that "Chevie" o' hers. Incidentally "Betsey" is the only feminine student in captivity who can turn that corner on two wheels. She manages her car just as well as she did the Academe and we of '32 know that some day "Betsey" will edit a paper of her own.

JOSEPH BIANCO

"Joe"

President D. S. A. A. Student Council 3, 4

Ass't Manager Football 3 Drama Club 2, 3

Manager Football 4 Band 4

Minstrels 3 Academe Staff 4

Propheteer of Class Book 4 Service Corps 4

"On with the dance, let joy be unconfined", is "Joe's" motto. The Beau Brummel of '32, he is one of the most popular boys in the class and is considered the best dancer. Cast a glance at the record above and judge for yourself if "Joe" has been idle these past four years. Always in or escaping from mischief caused by his famous "line", we wonder how he has managed to find any time for study.

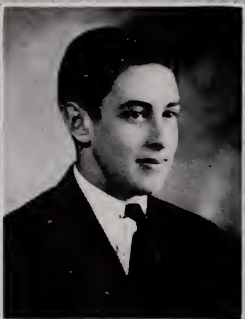

ARMAND BISSAILLON

"Arm" "Fat" "Herman"

Minstrels 4

Senior Stage Committee 4

"Arm" is one of those happy-go-lucky fellows without a care in the world. He has always been a loyal member of the school, especially in the cheering section of every home game. As a friend "Fat" is A-1 and as an athlete—he certainly enjoys basketball. We wonder what Mr. Murray will do without "Fat", Leo, or Frank in his classes next year—perhaps he'll send in his resignation (?). "Herman" is undecided about next year, but whatever vocation he chooses we are sure he will be a success.

GLADYS BISSAILLON

"Googs" "Glad"

Minstrels 4

"Glad" is one of Drury's quiet girls but is well-known. She is the class blonde and uses this advantage with the best of success. She has not yet decided what path she will follow when she leaves Drury, but right now the road to Stamford looks promising.

MARGARET BLANCHARD

"Peg"

"Peg" is one of Drury's quietest girls; she has not made herself very well-known to many, but those who do know her regard her as a true friend. Margaret is fitting herself for a business career.

ROGER BLOOD

"Roge"

Drama Club 3, 4

Minstrels 3, 4

Associate Editor of Class Book 4

Track 2

"Roge" isn't a genuine product of Drury, but since his coming here in 1929 from Mount Herman School he has been one of the bright spots in the classroom and in certain activities, especially in the Drama Club where he has been known as "Mr. Greene" since the Christmas play. Roger is going to attend the University of Vermont next year and we wish him all the luck and good marks that he has had at Drury.

ARTHUR BOYER

"D"

Football 3, 4, 5

Cheer Leader 4, 5

Track 3

Minstrel 5

Traffic Corps 3, 4, 5

"A jolly good fellow," whom everyone knows is this football hero who spends his time trying new pranks upon the teachers. However "Art" is a grand sport with a smile that seldom leaves his features. The best wishes of his classmates go with him when he leaves our school.

DOROTHY BRIGHAM

"Dot" "Dody"

Vice-President 3

Traffic Officer 4

Nu Sigma Epsilon 2

Student Council 3, 4

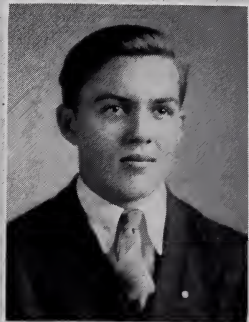

Pro Merito 3

Class Book Typist 4

Shorthand Contests 3, 4

Associate Editor of Class Book 4

Her sincere and hearty laugh characterizes her for the girl she is: a jolly companion, a hard worker, and a true friend at all times. "Dot" is one of the bright and shining stars in the Commercial Department. She proved herself a formidable foe at the Pittsfield and Boston shorthand contests and helped Drury carry off the prizes. She cannot help but succeed wherever she goes.

HAROLD BROWN

"Brownie"

Minstrels 3, 4
Football 3, 4

Class Play 4
Track 2

Rudy Vallee would undoubtedly have been jealous if he had heard "Brownie", the "imported talent" from Vermont, crooning in our '31 and '32 Minstrels. "Brownie" sure is an all around man. Besides singing, he can handle the "pig skin" and has in this way contributed his bit to the football squads of '31 and '32. And now he's planning to be an aviator, so don't be surprised one of these days to see "Brownie" make a three point landing right in your back yard!

DOROTHY BURLINGHAM

"Dot"

Academe Typist 4 Class Book Typist 4
Shorthand Contests 3, 4

This unassuming maiden has a very sensitive nature and—a keen sense of humor. Her light laugh has a way of spurting forth unexpectedly. However, "Dot" has always taken her work more seriously and has brought honor to the Commercial Department of old Drury as a representative at both county and state commercial contests. We are sure that "Dot's" troubles will be past history when she secures a position for she will have no difficulty in holding one.

LOIS LAWSON BUTTON

Drury Band 1, 2 Drury Minstrels 3, 4

'32 is going to let Lois pick up all the marbles this time, because we think she's the greatest little dancer who ever graced a Senior Prom.

This blue-eyed blonde, besides breaking many an unsuspecting male heart, spends one half of her time annoying Mr. Hartley, and the other half trying to get out of his detention classes, but she thinks it's a great life anyway. Happy landing, Lois!

JACK BYAM

Track 2 Band 3, 4
Nu Sigma Epsilon 2 Pro Merito 3
Latin Club 2

Yes, there's one fellow in Drury who never carries a grouch and that's Jack. He's always good-humored, and it's not bragging to say that he's done his share of studying and has succeeded in being an almost permanent member of the Honor Roll. Jack has ambitions too! He's headed for Yale next year. Well, good luck, old boy! We know you'll make it.

PHYLLIS CARSON

"Phil"

Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4

Orchestra 2, 3, 4

Outing Club 1, 2

Speedball 1

Academe Typist 4

Volley Ball 2, 3

Typewriting Contest 4

Meet "Phil", the Briggsville lassie with the school-girl complexion. She is a lover of all sports, basketball being her specialty. "Phil" isn't a talkative person but what she does say is worth while. Her golden gift of silence will help her next year when she enters the great field of business.

RITA CHENAIL

"Ritt"

Minstrels 3, 4

She is seldom seen anywhere without "Peg" Reimer. She doesn't exactly misbehave; yet one does occasionally see Miss Sherman casting apprehensive glances in Rita's direction. Overflowing with good spirits, "Ritt" lends zest to any occasion. She shares our affections with "Peg". We have good reason to believe that a certain "somebody else" also contests for her affections. How about it, "Ritt"?

CATHERINE CIRILLO

Minstrels 4

Jet black hair and wavy, that's Catherine. She wants to be a nurse, but she'll have to wait, because she won't even be seventeen until a month after school closes. Catherine specializes in talking in Mr. Hartley's fifth period class. All seniors join me in saying, "Good luck, Catherine. You'll be prettier than ever in a uniform."

ALICE CLUM

"Al"

Band 1, 2, 3, 4

Minstrels 3

"Al" is a faithful band member, and can she play a sax! She appears quiet, but upon better acquaintance ---?? She may be seen with "Prattski" almost any time. "Al" wants to go away, far away, maybe Adams, to a hospital and study dietetics. We're sure you'll be a good dietitian, Alice.

ROBERT COHEN

"Bob"

Basketball 2, 3, 4

Baseball 1, 3

Debating Team 4

Football 4

Associate Editor of Class Book 4

"Bob" is one of Drury's stellar oratorical performers. No living judge can look him in the eye and dispute the fact that Wesley Jones was an economical campaigner. Aside from this pursuit, "Bob" did no little jobs on the basketball, football, and baseball teams. Whatever you do, and wherever you may be in '33, "Bob", good luck!

ELEANOR CORRIGAN

"Corky"

Outing Club

Soccer 1

Basketball 1

Minstrels 1

Poetry Editor of Academe 4

Associate Editor of Class Book 4

Debating Team 4

Class Play 4

Drama Club 2, 3, 4 Sec. 4

All honor to "Corky", second of "The Three Musketeers." She needs no introduction. Her infectious gaiety, and mischievous smile are irresistible—at least "Red" thinks so—and they have also endeared her to the hearts of all her classmates.

Besides writing poetry—and she certainly can—"Corky" is a great little actress. Who doesn't remember her splendid work in the Senior Class Play?

If Hollywood doesn't nab her first, "Corky" plans to start a campaign against the Direct Primary.

CATHERINE DAL DOS

"Kate"

"Kate" is a modest and unassuming girl, yet she enjoys fun as well as the rest of us. Her wonderful brown eyes sometimes just sparkle with it. "Kate" is never so busy that she can't lend a helping hand, no matter what you ask her to do. Catherine has the best wishes for success in the nursing profession from all her classmates.

MARSHALL DALTON

"Marsh"

Track 2

Traffic Corps 4

"Marsh" is another one of our quiet (?) fellows, but is nevertheless one of the best sports in the whole school. He is always very modest regarding his abilities and accomplishments, of which we are positive he has several. "Marsh" is always ready to do his part no matter what the task may be, and he will be missed, we feel sure, when he "climbs old Drury hill no more." He has proved a very competent assistant of Mr. Clark's in helping to manage the lunch lines and other traffic corps duties. Next year will find "Marsh" showing the Drury spirit at Northeastern.

DOROTHY DANIELS

"Dot" is one of the best natured girls in school. She is always so neat and dainty; she looks as though she just emerged from a handbox. "Dot" is a fine student, and intends to be a teacher. We are sure her pupils will bring her flowers every day. "Dot's" pleasant smile will be missed when she leaves Drury.

DOROTHY EDSON

"Dot"

Nu Sigma Epsilon 2	Class Play 4
Associate Editor of Class Book 4	Debate 4
Drama Club 2, 3, 4	French Club 3, 4

"Dot" is a good sport and a firm friend. As "Aunt Milly" in the Senior Play she showed her great knowledge of scholastic problems. She is a member of that noted Latin class which has braved the task of reading Cicero. "Dot" will try her best in any work at hand and stick to the end, usually coming out on top. She is planning to enter Simmons next year and all our best wishes go with her.

LENA EICHERT

French Club 3, 4	Prompter of Class Play 4
Nu Sigma Epsilon 2	Pro Merito 3

Lena, whose beautiful, wavy hair is the envy of every girl at High School, has distinguished herself by her good marks. She is a conscientious girl who attacks her tasks cheerfully. We expect Lena will emerge from the Normal School as a teacher in American History and Civics, but we hope she will have a little pity on her pupils.

ROBERT EMERY

"D" "Bob"

Football 2, 3, 4	Service Corps 3, 4
Basketball 2, 3	Traffic Corps 2, 3, 4
Track 4	Student Council 3, 4—President 4
Drama Club 3	Minstrels 1, 3
Class Play 4	Latin Club 2

"Bob" certainly has a record up at Drury! He is hardly ever late—well, only four or five times a week. He is one of the best liked fellows in '32. "Bob" has varied talents which range all the way from playing keen football to giving a finished performance in the Class Play. Good luck, "Bob"!

MARGARET FERRIS

"Buddy"

Minstrels 1, 2, 3, 4 Basketball Team 1, 2, 3, 4

Orchestra 1, 2, 3, 4

Behind a seemingly quiet and unobtrusive exterior glows a warm smile and a keen desire to get all the fun she possibly can out of this life. She manages to do it, too. If you want to witness some real action, just watch "Buddy" shoot those baskets. They say that "where there's smoke, there's fire". We will say that where there's fun and frolic, there's "Buddy".

ROBERTA FINNEY

"Bobbie"

Traffic Corps 4

Drama Club 2, 3, 4

Associate Editor of Class Book 4

Roberta is one of the most likeable girls in the Senior class. With her pleasing disposition she has made many friends who will stand by her to the end. In all she has undertaken, she has been a success. "Bobbie" is planning to go to Boston Public Library next year. Here's to you, "Bobbie", all the success in the world!

MARION FLAHERTY

"Merry"

Minstrels 3, 4

Basketball 1

Traffic Corps 4

When we seek a friend we search for personality, sincerity, humor, pathos and frankness, and when we find all these fine qualities in one person, we find Marion. Her naturally curly hair has drawn many admirers and her wonderful disposition makes her a life long friend. Marion's patients won't want to get well when she trains at the Presbyterian Hospital in New York.

FRANCES FOX

"Fran"

Class Leader

"Fran" is one of those lucky girls whom nothing seems to bother—schoolwork least of all. Blessed with a happy manner, and a cheerful grin, she has wended her way through four successful years of Drury, making many friends.

"Smile and the world smiles with you" is "Fran's" motto, and so far it has proved correct.

Good luck, "Fran". We know you will make a good nurse.

MATTHEW E. GABRINER

"Matt" "Red"

Drama 3, 4

Service Corps 3, 4

Student Council 4

Chief Marshall Service Corps 4

"Reading maketh a full man"—etc. "Matt" has exhausted the librarian's list of newest books and has a perfect mania for plays. Meanwhile, he must reconcile himself with the title of "The Best Dressed Man in Drury."

Asked what his greatest pleasure was, he answered, "Let me dance forever." ("Matt" believes in perpetual motion.) When he is glimpsed swaying dreamily across the dance floor we know the orchestra must be good.

"Matt" is undecided between a literary career or the study of dramatics for next year.

IRENE GINGRAS

Nu Sigma Epsilon 2

Drama Club 3

French Club 3, 4

Art Editor of Class Book

Irene, the girl with the golden curls and sunny personality, is well liked by all her associates. Even though she is ready to participate in all the good times, she also manages to maintain her place on the Honor roll. When she enters Massachusetts State next year she wishes go with her.

MURIEL GINGRAS

Nu Sigma Epsilon 2

French Club 3, 4

Drama Club 3

Muriel is a quiet girl and a firm believer in the old slogan that "Silence is golden." Her cheery smile is familiar to all her friends. We wish you the best of luck at Massachusetts State next year, Muriel! We have at last learned the secret of her remarkable athletic ability, for she comes from a beautiful spot among the hills where she has plenty of room for outdoor exercise.

JESS GITELSON

"Jes"

Minstrels 3, 4

"Cursed be the Armory", said Jess, to his fellow members of the notorious "Swamp Gang". He caused so much commotion that the government had to intervene with the aid of the National Guard. Except for his occasional sigh (who's the girl, Jess?) his presence is practically unknown.

Jess is always getting a "great kick" out of life and still believes prosperity is "just around the corner" but he's going to take his time because the corner won't move.

ALFRED GUILINO

Track 2, 4

Football 3, 4

Traffic Corps 3, 4

Better known as "Terror Guilino", he has played great football for two years. Alfred is the rugged type and his chief interest lies in physical training feats. As a member of Company K, who knows but that some day our Alfred will be a general or a colonel with a pretty lot of braid on his uniform?

JENNIE GUILINO

Minstrels 4

Crash! Bang! Boom! What is all this racket? It is our favorite comedienne coming into view who keeps every class in an uproar. Jennie is well liked by all. Her witty remarks and mischievous pranks amuse everyone. Next year Jennie will take a P.G. and later plans to join the staff of "Ballyhoo".

EDITH HAIGH

When a particularly indescribable laugh echoes through the corridors, or a classroom at Drury, we always know who it is—Edith. Edith has been a pleasant classmate throughout her four years at Drury. She plans to enter Normal School, where we are sure she will be successful.

CAROLLYN HALL

"Canna"

"Canna's" what we call her. Won't she make a lovely nurse? If you haven't known her, it's not too late to start getting acquainted; she's always friendly. Please be careful that you don't err in hygienics or "Canna" will be up and at you. Will we miss her? I'll say we will!

GEORGE HAMER

"Georgie"

Traffic Corps 5	Minstrels 4, 5
Service Corps 3	Band 2, 3, 4, 5
Football 5	Cheer Leader 5

George is a friend anyone can be proud of (if you don't believe it just ask Milly). He is one of the "old faithfuls" of the band with his saxophone, while on the football field last fall he occupied a similar position in the line. George is also one of our cheerleaders along with "Art" and "Brownie" who manage to keep the "old Drury spirit" on the level rather than on a decline. "Georgie" is still pondering over what he is going to do next year, but wherever he goes he takes the best wishes of '32 with him.

JANE HASKINS

Drama Club 4	Class Play
French Club 3, 4	Literary Editor of Academe
Nu Sigma Epsilon 2	Pro Merito 3
Typewriting Contest 4	Class Book

Jane is one of those exceptional people who receives good marks in spite of her many outside activities. We all witnessed her excellent performance in the Class Play as the lovable "Mrs. Hardy".

Jane always has a cheerful smile for everyone, and her politeness and good cheer have won her many friends. At the present when she is needed, Jane willingly offers her services for all undertakings. Good luck, Jane! Nell is certainly lucky in acquiring a student like

EDWARD HORAHAN

"Ed"

So far as we know, Ed is positively immune to the charms of the fairer sex. Company K couldn't win any honors without the presence of "Ed" and his pal-in-mischief, Melcher. They both prefer shell-holes to school chairs.

"Eddy" is just a carefree, nonchalant, wise-cracking Romeo looking for his Juliet—hope he finds her soon. He can't be convinced that Woolworth sells the best "joolery".

RUTH JACOB

"Ruthie"

Traffic Corps 4	Nu Sigma Epsilon 2
French Club 3	Minstrels 1
Pro Merito 3
Associate Editor of Class Book 4

"Ruthie", despite her unusually quiet manner, has made many friends during her four years at Drury and is popular with the students and faculty alike. When this lass takes her lovely smile to the halls of North Adams Normal School, '32 will send "best wishes" with her.

SARAH JACOBS

"Sally"

Minstrels 3, 4

Outing Club 1

Basketball 2

* Sarah—Oh, what a gal! Her hobby is eating. On Friday she even brings an egg sandwich to her fifth period class. Only one thing about Sarah—when she gives an oral, she laughs so much that the necessity arrives for her to sit down. She does settle down once in a while, though. Sarah is undecided how she will continue, but we're sure she'll be a success.

KENNETH JEPSON

"Ken"

"Ken" has mapped the bumps in the roads quite successfully, so say the other occupants of "Jepson's Chevy", however, they're thankful for the cushions that are still adorning the much sought-after relic.

Kenneth is reticent concerning his abilities and accomplishments and never speaks unnecessarily. He's just the type that all teachers have been praying for since time immemorial. "Ken" will be the cause of a few teachers' tears towards graduation time. Bon voyage "Ken"!

MARION JOHNSON

"Red" "Cosy"

Band 1, 2, 3

Outing Club 1

Orchestra 1

Soccer 1

Minstrels 1, 3

Traffic Corps 3, 4

Basketball 1

Red hair, sparkling brown eyes, a dynamic personality, and a heart overflowing with love, all belong to our most popular "Red". During her four years at Drury "Red" has broken many hearts but her attention is focused on a dashing blonde from Williams. Marion will enter Red Cross work next year. Wonder if she is going to Texas for relief work?

RALPH JONES

"Jonesie"

Band 1, 2, 3, 4

Orchestra 2, 3, 4

Science Editor of Academe 4

Drama Club 4

Associate Editor of Class Book 4

Minstrels 4

Ralph is the school's radio expert. What he doesn't know about a radio—well, we wouldn't understand it anyway! Ralph studies industriously and from his splendid saxophone performance at the minstrels we know he must work hard at that, too. Best wishes, Ralph!

ELLA MAE KARREY

"El" "Karrey"

Orchestra 1, 2, 3

Minstrels 3

Drum Major 4

We want to thank the kind gentleman (?) who so willingly gives "El" a lift every morning so that she is able to reach Study C before one minute of eight as she used to do. Teasing aside, doesn't Ella look stunning when she leads the band down Main Street? I'll say she does! "El" has lent a sunny smile to Drury throughout her four-year stay. Drury will certainly miss her.

MARION KEAN

"Keanie"

Class Play 4 Associate Editor of Class Book 4

Let us introduce "Keanie". She wants to be a teacher—looks rather schoolmarnish, don't you think? "Keanie" is the best amateur impersonator ever. If you didn't see her in the Senior Class Play, "you don't know 'Keanie' like we do." By the way—her hands are always bound to fly around when she is explaining something difficult to Mr. Reilly.

CHARLOTTE KEMP

"Chucky"

Drama Club 2, 4

Nu Sigma Epsilon

Debate 4

Pro Merito

Class Play 4

Editor-in-Chief of Class Book

The executive ability shown by "Chucky" as Marion Hardy in the class play is carried over to her school and outside activities. This, however, is not her only accomplishment for she also possesses a great deal of scholastic talent. If it is a Latin translation or history recitation that lags, just look for "Chucky" and it will be remedied immediately. Charlotte is planning to enter Smith College next year. Here's wishing you all the luck in the world "Chucky".

LAWRENCE LALIBERTE

And here, ladies and gentlemen, we have "Larry"—Drury's best wise-cracker! No matter what the occasion or the environment, "Larry" has one of his best-sellers at hand—or should we say "on tongue"? Larry has drifted unconcernedly through four merry years of Drury life but somehow has managed to eke out passing grades always. Whatever he does next year we're behind him—one for all, and all for one!

CLARENCE LEE

Orchestra 1, 2, 3

Band 1, 2, 3, 4

Clarence has been known at Drury as following the motto "Silence is golden", but he is, however, one of Drury's most loyal students having always done his part for the school and '32. Clarence has tooted his way with his trusty saxophone and we can see a great future ahead of him whether it be playing in "Hank's Hermits" or with the New York Philharmonic Orchestra. Whatever he chooses to do, however, '32 will back him 100%.

CHESTER LESTAGE

"Chet" "Red"

"Chet" has some curly red hair that is an envy to his classmates. He is a quiet lad who loves his fun in a moderate form, but his friends respect and admire him for these qualities. "Chet" is undecided about his future, but we feel sure that he will succeed in anything he undertakes.

ELINOR LUBY

"El"

On first acquaintance, Elinor seems to be one of the more serious members of Drury but not so after you know her. "El" intends to be a French teacher in a big way, and teach from the "Luby French Primer" which she is now writing.

FRANK MARINO

"Kingfish"

Senior Stage Committee

Here is a lad who has won many friends through his friendliness and witty sayings. Frank also has a pet hobby, photography. He has not as yet decided whether he will continue his photography or enter an electrical school in Washington. Whatever he does, his friends feel sure that he will succeed and bring honor to the class of '32.

LESTER McCLUSKEY

Football 3, Cap't 4

Band 1, 2, 3, 4

Minstrels 2, 3, 4

Service Corps 3

Lester is the good-looking Hercules pictured opposite and the "crack" athlete of '32. "Mac" is famous for his laugh and his infectious personality. He is a lover of all sports and you should see him barge around a dance floor! His graces do not end here, for he cuts a mean swath among the damsels.

ANNE McDEVITT

Anne has firmly established her reputation as a quiet sort of girl. However, under her reserve, Anne is really a jolly person. She has never entered the school activities much, but has worked from the first steadily and surely toward graduation.

JACK MELCHER

Meet Mr. Melcher who holds the record for being the most mischievous fellow in school. He causes more worry and fretting among the faculty than anyone else in '32, but his personality saves the situation every time. He's a nice boy, with remarkable ability which he knows how to use, and what's more, everybody likes Jack!

ELINOR MILLER

Elinor appears to be a demure little miss, but as the old saying goes, "Still waters run deep". Her sense of humor and her love of good times has won for her a host of friends. We are sure Elinor will succeed in anything she undertakes in the future.

JOHN MORGAN

"Johnnie"

Band 1, 2, 3, 4 Drama Club Treas. 3
Manager of Basketball 4 Minstrels 3, 4
Student Council 1, 2, 3 Class Play Committee 4

"Johnnie" is the lad with the contagious smile! The sky seems brighter for everyone when this jovial soul heaves in sight. "Johnnie's" fame as a drummer is far reaching (as far as the Five Roads, especially). Although John is still in the air concerning next year, we're confident he'll be a great success.

LUCY MUSK

"Lu" "Babe"

Public Speaking Contest 2 Traffic Corps 4
Class Book Typist 4 Minstrels 2, 4

8 a. m.! Lucy's seat is vacant. 8:02 a. m. and "Babe" dashes in flashing friendly smiles in all directions. "Lu" possesses a silver cup awarded to her for her ability in public speaking. On that memorable morning of the contest when Lucy, delivered her humorous tale, the thunderous applause acknowledged her victory. This talented lass also has a promising voice. She may become a second Rosa Ponselle; who knows?

Take a bundle of energy, pounds of pep, and loads of personality; add to it curly hair, twinkling blue eyes, and a mischievous smile, and we have "Dot" O'Neil, one of the petite members of '32.

After leaving us, she plans to go to the Presbyterian Hospital in New York City and then to the Army School in Washington, D. C. Good luck "Dot"!

WILBUR PAYNE

"Paynie"

Secretary-Treasurer of Class 3, 4 Football 1, 3, 4
Vice-President D. S. A. A. 3 Track 2
Secretary D. S. A. A. 4 Manager of Baseball 4

Service Corps 3, 4 Latin Club 2
Basketball 2, 3, 4—Captain 4 French Club 3
Band 1, 2, 3, 4

We wouldn't be surprised if "Paynie" became a lawyer because he plays a mean court game. He has played basketball on our varsity for three years and captained the 1931-32 team. He also shines on the football field. Whatever "Paynie" plans to do, we are sure that his good-naturedness will be a big factor towards his success.

CHARLES PERRON

"Charlie"

Orchestra 3, 4 French Club 3, 4

"Charlie" came to Drury two years ago. Then, he was a shy little boy from the big city. However, he soon became acquainted with the students of Drury, and kept his classes amused by his quaint sayings. In French class, he kept the students' heads in a swirl by his "rapid-fire" delivery of the tongue. Let's hope he doesn't do the same to the professors of Georgia Tech!

PETER PETRI

"Pete"

Football 4 Minstrels 3

"Pete", as we call him, is a quiet, conservative fellow. He apparently is little impressed by the charms of the fair sex at Drury, but when he and "Ed" Dailey get together, with the aid of Dad's Reo, Adams isn't so very far away, and then his serene countenance takes on a new light.

VIRGINIA PIAGGI

"Virg" "Ginny"

Minstrels 2 Shorthand Contest 4

"Virg", the possessor of that contagious laugh, may always be found in the midst of a group of merry-makers. "Ginny", however, does not tread the path of least resistance, but stands high in all her subjects. In history she excels. When "the week-end approacheth" (quoted from our beloved history teacher) with its usual quizz, "Virg" always brings up the class average with her high grade. Although there may be gray skies, "Ginny", we know that you will always "Come smilin' thru".

"Buss" is one of the good-natured products of Drury and has contributed his natural talents to the Minstrels of '32. "Curly" was one of the Drury eleven in '31.

HARRIETT PRATT

"Prattski"

Basketball 2, 3, 4

Volley Ball 2

"Prattski" is one of those healthy, good-natured persons from Briggsville. Her frank, outspoken manner and sunny disposition have endeared her to her classmates. While steadily "getting the idea", "Prattski" has become a skillful player on the Girls' Basketball Team and a great little sport. Next year, her cheerful grin will gladden the lives of the patients at St. Margaret's Hospital.

"Pete" was a bashful boy when he entered Drury, but when he became a member of the Traffic Corps, and acquainted with a few of the girls, he had as good a time as any of us. "Pete" likes to read and study, and if you want to find out anything, just ask him. He'll be sure to know! He also communes with nature and can tell you anything about flowers or birds, for he has a camp up in the "wilds" of Vermont. "Pete" had better keep away from the girls when he gets to M. I. T. for he will have to work hard there.

JAMES PRATT

"Jimmie"

"Jimmie" likes to have a lot of fun when the teacher's back is turned, but somehow the other fellow always gets the blame. Lucky! "Jimmie" is a great basketball enthusiast, but as yet he hasn't tried to win any laurels for old Drury.

BARBARA RAND

"Barb" is another one of those people who believe in being seen and not heard. However, her ready smile and willingness to help have won for her a host of friends, and we feel sure her future will be a success.

Lucky, indeed, is the man who gets you for his "stenog", "Barb".

MARGARET REIMER

"Peg"

Drama Club 2

Minstrels 3, 4

A click, click of high heels; a gay, irrepressible giggle; roguish hazel eyes; yes, you're right, that's our "Peg". One hundred pounds of girlish enthusiasm and pep, she is more than a match for any depression. Our English and History classes would surely be lost without her. Now, just show us anyone who doesn't love her.

MARJORIE RICE

"Marj" "Skip" "Calamity"

Drury Minstrels 3

"Marj" is an out and out heart breaker. There are curious red lights in her gray eyes, and her wavy hair has an auburn sheen. Fond admirers seem to pay no heed to these warnings for "Skip's" mischievous smile is most fetching. Her carefree disposition does not permit her to excel in scholarly duties, yet she usually succeeds in getting by. "Marj" plans to take life as it comes with no definite object in view, yet most of us know what her career will inevitably be.

LEO RISATTI

"The Lion" "Raskob"

Here is a boy with a practical mind who has made some firm friends among his classmates. His great problem is to keep his "Chevie" in running condition. Leo plans to attend an aviation school in California and, no doubt, he will distinguish himself in this field.

JOHN ROHANE
 "Johnny" "Midget"
Associate Editor of Class Book 4

We feel sure that the old saying "Good things come in small packages" is justified when we look at "Johnny" as he is the boy who has gained the distinction of being the smallest male member of our class.

John hails from the "Beaver" and we can look forward to seeing him as the president of the Sprague Specialties Company, unless he decides to become a professional golfer as a result of his caddying. Good luck to you, John!

This gay lass, one of a group of jovial stenographers-to-be, glories in an occasional bit of harmless mischief. Her dark, twinkling eyes, and curly, black tresses are the objects of candid admiration. Although numerous young men have succumbed to her charms, a certain stripling from Athol is apparently winning the race. "Dee" is also a most brilliant scholar and she will doubtless be cordially welcomed into the business world next year.

"Chris," our Scotch lassie, is endowed with that certain something in her nature everyone does not possess. She is one of the best girl athletes in Drury and has played on the Girls' Basketball Team ever since her Freshman days, helping her team over many rough spots. "Chris" is slow to anger and as a result, she has many friends. She intends to be a stenographer when she leaves the portals of Drury behind her.

It was discovered, after "Dot" had been reprimanded for talking, that she had merely been attempting to make clear to herself the intricacies of bookkeeping. Good-natured, fun-loving "Dottie" will surely be welcomed wherever she goes.

"Fred" has done great work as Class President, making speeches and representing his class at different meetings. (We don't know whether he has made a speech as yet but we expect him to at graduation).

"Fred" will have to keep away from brunettes when he gets into New York University.

STANLEY SHAPIRO

"Stan" may be found, 'most any day, riding to or from his father's salesroom. His "coupe" is part of him—"love me, love my car"—and vice versa. "Stan" also "shines" at the proms, and his classwork shows that will power is an asset to all of us. We hope you'll be a good business man, "Stan"!

"Betty" Ann is the little girl with the great big smile who, for all her short height, has gone over in a big way! She doesn't spend all of her time at Hirsh's; she only stops in there once in a while. (Yeah?) "Betty" is going to study the New England Educational Systems at Normal next year. Can you imagine her as a teacher?

To look at this angelic little face you'd never guess that she was another one of that Chemistry "gang" who form the fight of Mr. Hartley's life, but she is. She may be little, but, oh, my!

DENNISON STEVENS

"Dennie"

"Dennie", who hails from Clarksburg, faithfully believes that "Silence is golden", he never advertises his presence in a superfluous manner. In fact, he reminds us of a certain gentlemen who used to dwell on Massasoit Avenue in Northampton. "Dennie's" quite a sportsman on the side, though!

HELENA STEVENS

Basketball 2, 3, 4

Helena is a jolly girl with hazel eyes and jet black hair. She is always ready for fun with vim and vigor. A great deal of the giggling in room 15, fourth period may be traced to a certain seat in the back of the room. Never cast down, but always the same, with good jokes and a joyous laugh, Helena goes about her work, making us all happy to see her.

MARGARET STEVENSON

Margaret is one of the most attractive girls in the class of '32. She has been prominent in school activities and has almost never missed a prom. However, in spite of her outside interests, she has done good class work and succeeded in making Nu Sigma. Margaret is going to Normal next year, and all our best wishes for success go with her.

KENNETH TANGLEY

"Ken" "Tang"

"Ken" is one of the select few who can mix his studies with his play. He is a boy whose friendly smile has made many firm friends. If "Ken" succeeds in his work as he did with his studies, we know that his future will be assured.

MARGARET TILCH

"Marg" is another of our brilliant stenographers. No matter how fast the dictation, she always gets it. She was right there to help bring home those cups we won last year in the shorthand contest. We are all anticipating a bright career for her. Who knows, she may be private secretary to some famous lawyer, or even to the President! Good luck, "Marg".

MARGARET VARIN

"Peg"

Who doesn't remember "Peg's" infectious giggle? Her vivaciousness won her many friends, both in school and out. Although the ever present imp of mischief often involved her in many difficulties, "Peg" always came out of the fire unscathed.

We don't know what your plans for the future are, "Peg", but the best wishes of the class of '32 go with you.

"Fran's" popularity has gained her the position of vice-president for two years and her intellectual ability has enabled her to fill the office competently. The class of '32 is proud of "Fran's" social and scholastic accomplishments. "Frannie" will continue her education at Fitchburg Normal.

GUY WESTON

Senior Stage Committee

Guy is one of the most comical boys in our class. He is renown for his "ark" which everyone in school seems to like pretty well. Guy is one of our most obliging chauffeurs and is always willing to give anyone a lift. He is a clever electrician as he demonstrated during the class play. We wouldn't be surprised if Guy followed the printing trade, but whatever he does, we know he'll make good.

CLARENCE WILDMAN

"Y"

"To spend too much time in studies"—well? A wise-crack a-day keeps the gloom away. "Y" has gotten out of "gym" so many times each year for breaking fingers that Coach Hosley looked into his case and found out that he has been purposely breaking his fingers with a hammer!

"Y" thinks he'd like to go to a Nautical School he can see the world, but we think he does not want to settle down to home life. "Happy landing!"

MARY WILSON

Unlike the proverbial, contrary Mary of the nursery rhyme, Mary Wilson is exactly the opposite. She is the possessor of a wealth of wavy, black hair, and a delightfully, infectious smile. She has many friends and is well liked by her classmates. Because of her sweet and modest manner, Mary will be successful in whatever she undertakes.

IN September, 1928, Drury High School was blessed by the enrollment of a class of demure, little Freshmen whose greatest obstacle and fear was getting safely into the right home-room before being tricked by some of the playful students who knew the ropes.

Once in our respective opening rooms, we were assured by the teachers that it would be safe to ask members of the traffic corps where our various class rooms were, and thenceforward we looked up to those students with red bands ornamenting their arms as our saviours on that first dreadful day.

After a few weeks had passed and we were settled to our new school life, we were called into study B for our first class meeting. John Morgan was elected class president, Dorothy Palmer, vice-president, and Donald Gordon, secretary and treasurer. We chose Mr. Clark as our adviser for the year.

The most outstanding event of the year was perhaps the trip to Washington. A similar trip is taken every four years primarily for band members, but several other students joined the band and made the trip of 1929 one of the most profitable and enjoyable affairs in the history of the school.

Another marked event of our Freshman year was the minstrel and rodeo held in Drury auditorium under the skillful direction of Mr. Chambers. It was an overwhelming success!

The following September we returned with a great satisfaction of no longer being "Freshies" although we were now "wise fools". At our class meeting this year, we again chose John Morgan as president. The vice-president was Frances Walshe and the secretary and treasurer was Andrew Cleghorn. Under the careful advice of Mr. Reilly we spent a second successful year at Drury.

This year Mr. Chambers staged the first outdoor concert since we had entered. All of North Adams turned out and since that night, the vocal ability of the Drury student body has been recognized throughout the city.

In June we completed one-half of our high school course and at this time were greatly grieved at the loss of our most capable principal, Mr. Caverly, who left us to go to Brookline, Massachusetts.

At last we were Juniors—upperclassmen, and we began another eventful year with our beloved Mr. McGrory, a former teacher and friend to every Drury student, as our new principal.

For a third time we placed John Morgan at the head of our class. Dorothy Brigham was elected vice-president and Wilbur Payne, secretary and treasurer. We were ably advised throughout the year by the ever loved Miss Sherman.

The events of this year were the minstrel show and outdoor concert, both successfully staged by Mr. Chambers, a man who lives in a land of music.

We had an entirely new and different experience this year—preparing for and putting on successfully the Junior Prom. There is no doubt as to its success, both financially and socially. We have commended ourselves because on this occasion Mr. McGrory and Miss Radlo made the remark that the gymnasium looked prettier than they had ever seen it—and that is something!

At last that coveted step on the ladder of education was reached—we were Seniors! The great honor of senior class presidency was bestowed upon Fred Seddon. The gracious Frances Walshe was again made our vice-president and Wilbur Payne our secretary and treasurer. Our beloved Miss Radlo was chosen to advise us during the last eventful year of our high school career.

By professional acting on the parts of Fred Seddon, Charlotte Kemp, Jane Haskins, Robert Emery, Lawrence Laliberte, Dorothy Edson, Alfred NeJame, Harold Brown, Eleanor Corrigan and Marion Kean under the skillful direction of Miss Shea "Skidding" was a rip-roaring success!

The next occurrence was the Senior Prom. It was a most colorful affair and in general "a good time was enjoyed by all."

Another minstrel was held this year which was a success as are all of Mr. Chambers' undertakings.

The Senior Reception and Banquet are joyful affairs which lead to the final step. We have come to the end. We have finished our four-year course at Drury and although there is a feeling of satisfaction for having accomplished what we set out to do, there is also a feeling of sadness at leaving our beloved Alma Mater, our helpful and loving teachers, and our classmates. Now we are separated, each to go his own way, but not one of us shall ever forget the happy days spent at Drury.

Ruth Jacob

On a Trans-Pacific flight this last summer we espied among the select crowd a man whose actions and appearance were strangely familiar. Walking up to get a closer look at him whom should we discover but our old friend, perhaps I should say former friend, (?) Mr. Reilly. With him was Robert Cohen. As is always very natural, we began to "reminisce" about the good old days in Drury, and to make mention of the progress made by the illustrious class of '32. This is the result of our collaboration.

PROPHECY ON PROPHETS

WHAT a relief! After touring the so-called unpopulated sections of the West making political speeches for the Republican presidential campaign in 1944, at last I had the opportunity to orate before the ever thronging crowds that gathered at Lewisohn stadium in New York City.

Finally the rally began, and I was introduced by a short, dark, handsome man whom I knew I had seen before. That voice, stance, his delivery—it all seemed so familiar. Why, I knew that man! It was none other than “Joe” Bianco, my old classmate.

At the conclusion of my speech, we renewed our acquaintance, after which “Joe” informed me that he was the mayor’s representative and because his honor, the mayor, was ill, “Joe” had replaced him.

After having graduated from Drury, “Joe” went to Georgetown University where he pursued a business administration course. After holding various secretarial positions for many eminent financiers, he became the mayor’s private secretary and, incidentally, his representative.

We dined at the St. Regis that evening, and later in the evening, “Joe” remarked that it was imperative that he inspect the new Hoover Memorial High School the following morning. He added that if I could spare the time, he would be delighted to have me accompany him. As an added incentive, I was told that a women’s commission would also be present. After deliberating for a moment, I decided that I would be able to accompany him.

Whom do you think I met the following morning while touring the spacious halls of the new Hoover Memorial High School? None other than Jane Haskins, formerly one of Drury’s most brilliant and likeable students.

After having graduated from Drury, Jane attended Cornell where she received her A. B. degree. After years of successful teaching, she was appointed chairman of the Board of Education of New York City. Jane married John Burton, a prominent member of the faculty of Columbia University and was the mother of two lovely children.

I spent a most delightful evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Burton and the following morning, I left New York City, completely satisfied, due to the unexpected pleasure of meeting again two eminent classmates of my old high school days.

CLASS WILL

WE, THE class of 1932, being in doubtful possession of the few faculties we ever had, and about to venture into the great beyond, the world of strife for which we have been prepared, do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament, and do by this document bequeath the following:

1. To Mr. McGrory, new cushions for the seats in front of the office to make the afternoon session of miscreants more comfortable.
2. To Mrs. Gallup, a new pair of spectacles so that she may better detect forgeries in excuses from home.
3. To Mr. Murray, the right to hold and to enjoy the tenancy and occupancy of our proper habitation, Study C.
4. To Miss Radlo, a new set of armor that she may be well armed then she sets out on her dangerous, futile tour of debt-collecting in the future.
5. To Dr. Gadsby, a year's subscription to "Bally-Hoo" and "Whiz-Bang". We feel that he has earned a long respite from Virgil and Cicero.
6. To Mr. Cameron, a year's leave of absence that he may recuperate from the severe injuries he received in the Drury Varsity vs. Faculty basketball game.
7. To Mr. Reilly, all the old "College Humors" available so that he can brush up on his "wisecracks".

We bequeath to our lineal descendants, the class of 1933, to each and everyone, severally and together, the dignities, rights, and privileges which we received from our honored forebears for the governance and regulation of all lesser persons and classes.

It is our will that at assemblies the balcony seats, the same being without cushions, of the auditorium be taken, held, and defended from all encroachments whatsoever, by the class of 1934.

We bequeath to the class of 1935 Emily Post's "Book of Etiquette" that they may improve their neglected manners.

We bequeath to the incoming Freshmen the fine examples of the class of 1932 for them to follow and benefit by.

We do herewith ordain and appoint our advisor, Miss Radlo, to be our executrix, admonishing her to see that these, our wishes, are truly and lawfully fulfilled, and we hereby enable and empower her to dispose of all our property, real and personal not herein specifically mentioned, to the best ordering of our estate. We also charge upon our executrix the payment of all just debts and obligations.

In the presence of our executrix, Miss Radlo, and the following witnesses, we do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament.

THE CLASS PLAY, 1932

CLASS PLAY

THE CLASS of 1932 presented its Senior Class Play on Friday evening, December 11th. A delightful, three-act comedy "Skidding" by Aurania Rouverol was selected. With a cleverly conceived plot adorned with numerous witty lines, the play carried its audience along in a state of merriment until the final curtain. Judging by the prolonged applause at the conclusion, the production won a well-merited success. This fact was due in no small measure to Miss Margaret C. Shea who so very capably directed the cast, assisted by Lena Eichert.

The scene was laid in the Mid-Western home of Judge Hardy, where the judge, alias Fred Seddon, found himself fighting politics so that he would not lose his nomination for the district court. Mrs. Hardy, a sympathetic wife and mother, was ably enacted by Jane Haskins, while Andy, an incorrigible but lovable son, was performed by Lawrence Laliberte who gave an exceedingly clever performance. Marion Hardy, the sophisticated daughter just home from college, was well-acted by Charlotte Kemp, who brought Wayne Trenton III, a part capably filled by Robert Emery, into the political turmoil of the Hardy home. To complicate matters the two married daughters of Judge Hardy, Myra Hardy Wilcox and Estelle Hardy Campbell, played by Marion Kean and Eleanor Corrigan, decided to leave their husbands and return home. Their humorous repartee added much to the evening's entertainment.

The other members of the cast were Dorothy Edson, who took the role of Aunt Milly, an old maid school teacher; Alfred NeJame, who was a "screaming success" as Mr. Stubbins, the political campaign manager, and Harold Brown, who gave an exceptionally fine impersonation of Grandpa Hardy.

CLASS SONG

THE trumpets blare, the banners fly
Arise ye guards, fling wide the gate
For on this day we sally forth
To meet the promise of our fate.
With steadfast hearts and courage high
We face life's journey eager, bold,
With knowledge that a willing hand
Makes light the tasks the years may hold.

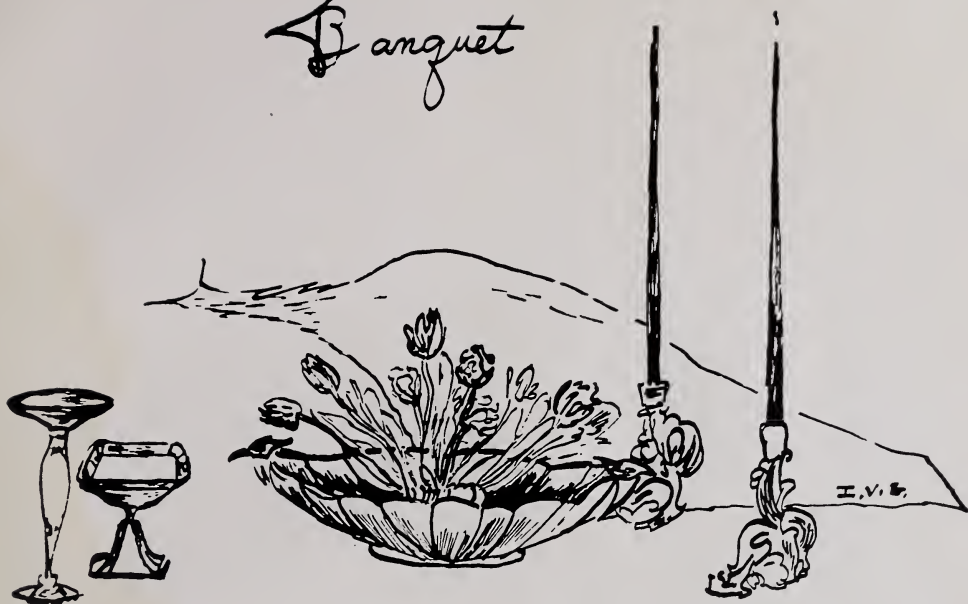

Oh, Alma Mater, e'er we part
For thee we voice our song of praise
For friendships formed within thy walls,
For happiness of student days,
For passing years will bear their fruit,
For truths taught us so patiently,
For all in life we may attain
Dear Alma Mater, praise to thee.

As time comes now for our farewell
The gates behind us slowly swing
And seeking out his separate path
Each wonders what the years will bring.
With zeal and honor we will strive
To keep thy faith and ever be
Thy sons and daughters, loyal, true,
Oh Alma Mater dear, to thee.

Mary Wilson

To the tune "My Maryland".
